JACKSON ELECTED LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR OF MISSOURI.—The St. Louis Republican of the 15th inst., says that error has been discovered in the official canvass in Missouri in the vote for Lieut. Governor, which elected Jackson, Democrat by one majority. Newland, the Fillmore candidate, had been regarded elected by one hundred and eighty-eight majority. The Legislature will correct the error, undoubtedly, by giving the office to Jackson. The rest of the Democratic ticket is elected by majorities ranging from one to six thousand.

AMTOS VOYAGE AT MORAY HALL.—An enthusiastic and fashionable audience convened last evening to witness this brilliant achievement of art, who gave undisturbed evidence of approbation by frequent outbursts of applause.
It is now fairly gliding down the golden stream of success. Already it has become a popular attraction for our citizens, and is worthy of its popularity. True, we have described its many attractions inadequately, but no one can realize its merits without visiting it. So strange are the scenes, so unlike every day life, that the spectator is involuntarily borne away in spirit to the regions of the North, and for the time completely absorbed by the novelty of all that is passing before him. The whole work throughout, is masterly, effective and brilliant.

Trozel, Ambrotypist, on Main street, has returned from a seven weeks' tour through the North and East, having visited the principal cities for the express purpose of learning what was new, and making specimens of distinguished persons and places. While traveling, he secured a number of fine specimens of Niagara Falls, all taken from different points; some of which represent persons from Louisville on the foreground, sufficiently distinct to be recognized; one view of the Falls of Montmorency, in Lower Canada; a number of views of prominent buildings in Philadelphia, etc., five fine pictures of Millard Fillmore, one of Benjamin P. Shillibier, known as Mr. Farrington, two of Col. Fremont, one of Mr. Lizzie Weston Davenport, A. H. Davenport, and at least fifty others, which alone are worth a visit to the gallery. The object of the tour was to make a "Picture Gallery of Kentucky." Having secured the services of two of the most eminent Artists and Photographers in the East, he is now prepared to make Mezzog-raphs, life-size, from the person or Daguerretypes, and color them to nature, in oil or water colors. All styles of pictures are made at this gallery, or a Collodiotype. Particular attention paid to the Ambrotype, as this is the only gallery where the genuine, hermetically sealed Am-brotypes are made. Persons wishing lasting pictures should bear this in mind. Eight different kinds of pictures are being made at this gallery, prices ranging from one to fifty dollars. Having purchased stock, etc., at very low rates, the proprietor has reduced the price of his pictures to at least one-third less than any other gallery in the city; especially fine and fancy cases.
The object is to sell fine cases at prices to enable all to have them that may wish. This is no fiction.

In order to complete this establishment, and complete with Eastern Galleries, the proprietor has seen proper to have a lady in the reception room to receive and entertain customers, and act as a lady-in-waiting. For this purpose a sister of the proprietor has been selected, who will be constantly in the reception room during operating hours. Ladies often feel a delicacy in going to a picture gallery alone, and why? from the very fact, in this section of country, heretofore, the proprietor or one of the hands have always been obliged to receive customers—something entirely out of place, except for ladies. Frequently customers do not receive that due attention they should, and the only way to obviate this is to have an affable and agreeable lady in the reception room. The public are invited to call at the rooms on Main street, between Second and Third, over the House line telegraph office.

A GOOD INVESTMENT.—A company of enterprising men are about starting a new business in this city, which is supposed to very greatly enhance the value of real estate and railroad stock in this and the neighboring States. This establishment will give employment to a great number of hands, and an immense amount of capital, (variously estimated at $1 to $15.) The principal articles manufactured will consist of woolly horses, mermaids, live elephants stuffed with straw. Samples of their own make—obtained from other establishments—can be seen free gratis for nothing. The whole will be under the charge of Peter B. Barron, the progeny, and William Howard, Esq., who have been creating a wind-mill on Main, between Second and Third streets, not far from the telegraph office. This locality has been chosen as peculiarly adapted, on account of the concentration of magnetic influence, which enables the proprietors to exercise perfect control over the elements, and subdue the human passions in a cycloidal manner, thereby making the subject believe the moon is made of green cheese, with a rat-hole through far into futurity, where a giant is looking through a magnifying glass, trying to find the soul of the little man who says that Webster's Spherotypes are no better than Ambrotypes put up with balsam, when, everybody knows that three out of four of the latter style of picture turn black or spot in a very short time.

Country merchants will bear in mind that Porter's Oriental Life Liniment is all the go nowadays with the afflicted, and is rapidly super-seding the use of all other Liniments. Thousands of the most intelligent and reliable men of the whole country testify to its great virtues in the cure of rheumatism, old sores, bruises, sprains, cuts, swellings, or swine, scratches, etc., in horses. The evidence in its favor is incontestable, and if dealers want an article they can recommend to their customers as the most certain and safe remedy in use for such diseases as it is recommended, and no humbug, they should buy Porter's Oriental Life Liniment, which sells rapidly, pays a good profit to the retailer, and gives universal satisfaction to all that use it. The Oriental Life Liniment is sold by all the wholesale Druggists in the city. Also, by John D.
Park, Cincinnati, Ohio. Principal Depot, 327 Main street, Louisville, Kentucky.

EXHIBITION OF FALL STYLE OF CLOAKS AND MAS-TERS.—Miller & Tabb will have open on Monday, and invite general attention to the largest and most varied assortment of fall and winter wrappings in this city, all of which are either imported or copied of the latest Parisian design; include all the latest styles, are composed of the very best quality of material; and we may add, at as low prices as the same class of goods can be purchased elsewhere. We ask the ladies to call and examine before making their selections. dt

Just published.
A new edition of the People's Pamphlet, giving the rise and progress and wonderful career of Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, from 1840 to the present time, given gratis by the agents of the medicine. It is richly worth a perusal. This unparalleled preparation is receiving more testimonials of its wonderful efficacy in relieving pain, than any other medicine ever offered to the public, and these testimonials come not alone from the ignorant, but from persons of every degree of intelligence, and every rank of life. Physicians of the first respectability and perfectly conversant with the nature of diseases and remedies, have recommended this as one of the most effective in their line of preparations for the extinction of pain.

For an extensive remedy the Pain Killer has been used by the most distinguished Physicians, Compliment, Dyspepsia, Asthma, Rheumatism, etc., by taking it internally and bathing with it freely. It is the best liniment in America. Its action is like magic, when externally applied to bad sores, burns, sprains, cuts and scalds, either on man or beast. For sick-headache and tooth-ache, don't fail to try it.
It is a very safe and reliable remedy.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 17.
The Hall is crowded. There is a full attendance of delegates, representing 26 States, all except California, Wisconsin, Texas, Iowa, and Minnesota. The convention was called to order by Wm. Schley, of Baltimore, ex-Governor Hunt, of New York, temporary chairman, made an eloquent speech in acknowledgment of the honor conferred upon him, and spoke of the present critical position of affairs in the country and the danger menaced against the perpetuation of the Constitution from sectional and selfish parties, and the necessity of the Whigs of the Union, in the exercise of their conservative efforts, to interpose to preserve peace.

After he had assembled on this auspicious day in the name of the Constitution and Union, and he urged his fellow-Whigs to stand in their might to rebuke fanaticism and sectionalism, and particularly labor to secure to posterity a precious inheritance secured by our fathers. He expressed the pleasure he felt in meeting such a number of gallant old Whigs, which in turn induced him to do such good service in preserving the interests and honor of our common country. He for one did not admit that the old Whig party was dead, and here was proof.

When he had finished his address, a delegation of the Washington's Farewell Address was read by Henry Ketchum, and great applause.
On motion, Henry W. Thomas, of Va., was appointed temporary secretary. A committee of one from each State represented was appointed to make a permanent organization, led by David Paul Brown, of Penn.

A committee on resolutions was appointed.
The convention took a recess till 5 o'clock.
The attendance far exceeds the most sanguine expectation. It is a most imposing body of men.
Great enthusiasm is manifested.

Five o'clock, a. m.—The Convention re-assembled at five o'clock. The hall was packed, and the enthusiasm intense.

The committee on resolutions, appointed in the morning session, took up the report of Robert Y.
Conrad, of Virginia, was Chairman, were instructed to prepare an address to the people of the United States. The committee announced that from each State represented was appointed to make a permanent organization, led by David Paul Brown, of Penn.

The Convention was then addressed by Governor Graham, of North Carolina, Granger, of New York, Reeves, of Virginia, and Hunt, of Mississippi.

Gov. Graham's speech was thrilling, and electrified the audience, and when he expressed his preference for Millard Fillmore, the whole house rose in honor, cheering and applauding.

After which the Convention adjourned.

A large number of delegates arrived this afternoon. The city is alive with preparations making for a monster meeting at Monument Square to-morrow.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 17.
The city is alive with excitement caused by the great Republican Mass Convention, which is most imposing in number and scope.
Business is almost entirely suspended. The procession is immensely long, having been over two hours passing the telegraph office. The streets are decorated with bunting, and the people are in a holiday mood. The windows are crowded with ladies who cheer the procession as it passes.

The greatest enthusiasm prevails.
Several distinguished strangers are here, among others Mr. C. M. Clay, N. P. Banks, and Robert Bingham. Owing to indisposition Burlingame is not here. Sumner was also expected but is absent.

Hon. Thos. Hunt, President. Speeches were delivered from the principal stand by Hon. A. W.
Loomis, of Pittsburgh, Cassius M. Clay, of Kentucky, Thos. Williams, John H. Hampton, and from the German stand by John P. Hoy, senior, of Cincinnati. Hon. N. P. Banks did not arrive as reported.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 17.
The Democratic celebration of the anniversary of the adoption of the Federal Constitution, has drawn the city a scene of bustle and excitement throughout the day. Every train and steamboat bringing in delegations from a distance, including one from New York, and others, which the Union Democratic Club meeting was called to order at 2 o'clock, Geo. M. Wharton, presiding. Mr. Wharton delivered an address—the address of the Federal Convention was read. Ex-Gov. Johnson, of Ga., made a speech two hours in length, giving a history of the Federal Constitution, and declaring its most important feature to be the equality of rights to every State of the Union. He declared slavery to be a crime, and that the Constitution recognized slaves as property, and that the slave owner going to Kansas had as much right to carry off his negroes as Northern men had to carry off theirs. He declared that the Constitution was a great mistake, and that the greatest mission of the world cometh followed by God, and that Hon. Howell Cobb, of Ga., at the main stand and Riddle, of Mass., and Moore, of Texas at the Southern stand. Speaking continued throughout the evening. At 10 o'clock a procession was formed at Arch street, headed by the Keystone Club with a huge ball mounted on a wagon, placarded "We are telling the knell of Black Republicanism." Following them were the delegations from New York city, Trenton, Beverly, Jersey, Montgomery and Delaware, County and Wilmington, [Del.], and then followed the various societies, all carrying banners with bands of music. Innumerable torches and lanterns of every description beaming with molten depicting Black Republicanism as an unparalleled sin, and the cause of all the evils, distressing and dishonor and dishonor. The procession is a most imposing affair and the streets through which it passed were blazing with lights. The side walks are thronged with spectators. The procession will not complete its route before midnight. There will be a display of fire works as it passes Independence square.

WORCESTER, Sept. 17.
The Republican State convention to-day was largely attended. Hon. Mr. Bartlett presided, assisted by Josiah Quincy, James C. Chase, Francis Adams, and other prominent men.
Indications are favorable to a renomination of Gov.
Gardner, but it will be a close struggle.

The Fremont Union convention, which assembled here to-day is numerously attended—Luther J. Fletcher presides. Mr. Banks addressed the Republican convention this morning, urging the necessity of action.

Afternoon Session.—This afternoon, both conventions united upon an electoral ticket at large, viz: Julius Rockwell and Thomas Cook.
The American Fremonters adopted Dayton in place of Johnson for Vice President, and they declared themselves to labor for the re-election of Sumner to the Senate. The Americans nominated Gardner, and, owing to some difficulty in getting a majority, they adjourned till to-morrow, when they adopted a resolution that they would nominate no State ticket.

Boston, Sept. 17.
The inauguration of Franklin Statue to-day was the most important event of the day.
The procession was over two hours in passing a given point. Robt. C. Winthrop, the orator, delivered a brilliant address of an hour and a quarter, during which he exhorted the people to perseverance in their efforts to secure the rights of the people, who are in a perfect jubilee.

St. Louis, Sept. 17.
The Radical Abolitionists organized at noon.
James Fuller presided. Eleven delegates were present. Resolutions were adopted and the meeting adjourned till to-morrow.
